WHEREAS, It has been brought to our attention that the California Legislature in April of 1958 did send to Congress a Joint Resolution requesting a complete study of the economic problem of disarmament, and

WHEREAS, We believe that it is as vital to make real preparations for the "outbreak of peace" as for the outbreak of war; therefore be it

BESOLVED, That the City Council of the City of Lodi, representing many if not all of the people of Lodi, add its voice to the voice of the California Legislature in requesting a study of the economic problems of disarmament; and be it further

RESOLVED, That we do herewith petition the Congress of the United States to be alert to all aspects of peacemaking and to be as concerned about our nation's over-all "posture of peace" as about our more narrow but vital posture of defense; and be it further
